River Invades Louisville

Taken from a skiff floating above the river docks, this picture shows the swollen Ohio creeping into Fourth street, Louisville's main north-and-south business thoroughfare. The water still was many feet below the level which brought such great havoc in 1937.

Masonic Temple at Mayor Opposes Former Gray Home Additional Taxes On Real Estate

Would Alter Second Story and Use Room for Meeting Purposes of Both Kings-ton, Rondout Lodges

Various phases of his six proposals designed to "strike fear into the hearts of dishonest officials" were assailed at a public hearing yesterday as "blockades" to efficient prosecution and praised as "great delusions" to crime.

Meantime, a special committee of the association of towns, renewing its recommendation for a two per cent sales tax, termed the governor's suggestion of an additional tax on real estate "a very important step backward" and added:

"Its suggestion for a business turn-over tax would be extremely hurtful to business and industry *** and would tend to aggravate the unemployment situation."

Vigorous opposition also came from J. Russell Sprague, who emphasized in an interview that he was speaking only in his capacity as "Nassau county executive."

Sprague is also a member of the Republican state executive committee, in which his views are expected to weigh heavily.

Reoux Wouldn't Predict

Assemblyman Reoux declined to predict what action the judiciary committee would take on the six anti-corruption bills sought by the governor, but opined, after hearing numerous speakers at the hearing, that "there doesn't seem to be much enthusiasm for them."

Considerable opposition was voiced for a measure to broaden the governor's power to supersede district attorneys, which Bronx County Prosecutor Samuel Foley said would permit removal of a district attorney "without opportunity for a hearing."

Opposing all the bills, Foley said another, authorizing creation of a state department of justice with an appointee, instead of electing an attorney general, would be "a stumbling block to efficient prosecution."

Prosecutor John R. Schwartz, Dutchess county, president of the State District Attorneys Association, also opposed all the measures and termed "unfair" one that would bar from private law practice district attorneys in counties over 120,000 population.

Other measures proposed by the governor would require an annual grand jury check-up in each county on indictments over a year old; permit him to initiate investigations of local government agencies, and require direct reporting by the state comptroller to the governor on evidence of "irregularities" found in municipal accounts.

Favor for some or all of the bills was expressed by Democratic Assemblyman Daniel Gutman, Brooklyn; Francis J. McCaffrey, New York city; Ira H. Holley, Brooklyn, and Lawrence J. Murphy, Rockland county.

Defense Debate Due

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—Informed by their military committee that imminent war threatens in Europe, House leaders agreed today to start debate early next week on the first phase of the administration's defense program. The military committee last night approved a measure to give the army 3,032 new planes, provide more than $23,000,000 for Panama Canal zone facilities, and authorize $32,500,000 for "educational orders" to train private industry in production of war materials.

Within 15 Minutes

Selinsgrove, Pa., Feb. 9 (AP)—George D. Fisher, 65, died last night. His son, Alfred, 42, collapsed and died 15 minutes later.

Glass Says Roosevelt Would Unseat Two Virginia Democrats

Senator Says President Failed to Show 'Common Courtesy' of Discussing Roberts' Nomination With Himself and Senator Byrd—Glass Thinks Action One to Purge Byrd

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—A charge by Senator Glass (D-Va.) that President Roosevelt is seeking to unseat Virginia's two Democratic senators enlivened today the controversy over the senate's 72-3 rejection of a judgeship nomination.

The 81-year-old Glass declared in a statement last night that the president had failed to accord the Virginia senators "the common courtesy" of discussing with them his appointment of Floyd H. Roberts to the federal bench in Virginia.

He was replying to a presidential letter to Roberts which criticized the senate for refusing to confirm the nomination.

Glass and his colleague, Senator Byrd (D-Va.), had endorsed A. C. Buchanan, a state judge, and Frank Taverne, assistant federal attorney, for the position. They had described Roberts' selection as "personally offensive."

Discussing Buchanan, Glass said in his seven-page statement: "It is to be deplored from every point of view that he should have been rejected by the appointment power merely through a desire to 'purse' the junior senator (Byrd) next year and the senior senator of Virginia later if I should live longer than the intrigues hope."

There have been reports that the organization of Gov. James H. Price of Virginia will put a candidate in the field against Byrd in 1940. Glass' term expires in 1943.

The statement by Glass put the next move in the controversy up to the president, who must nominate another for the judgeship.

Glass said he did not recall ever having met Judge Buchanan, and declared, "this is no fight for patronage. I do not care a tinker's dam for patronage."

He said the Virginia senators were willing to accept "any capable nominee of the president who is not willing to concede to the governor of Virginia or a bitterly hostile congressman the right to veto the suggestions by the senators of men of the highest character and ability."

(Glass has contended that the president had been involved in controversy almost since its inception.

Labor cases could be removed from it to a federal district court, leaving the board only the power of prosecution of a labor complaint. All its rulings would be subject to prompt court review.

In response to a letter, Glass said, Mr. Roosevelt once urged him to continue making such recommendations.

Burke would let employers petition the labor board for collective bargaining elections, a right now given only to employees. He would permit employers to confer with their workers on any subject.

"Cafar labor practices" would be broadened to include striking in violation of a valid contract, inter-union jurisdictional disputes that interfered with an employer's conduct of his business, and intimidation of workers by union officials.

At present the act recognizes "unfair labor practices" caused only by employers. Burke would make it the policy of the government to encourage "the development of friendly and mutually fair relations between employers and employees."

Patterson Choice For Manton Post

Garrison Jurist Is Said to Be Likely Nominee for U. S. District Court Vacancy

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—Judge Robert Porter Patterson of Garrison, N. Y., who won a hero's rating in the World War, was said today to be a likely choice for the United States Circuit Court of Appeals to succeed Martin Manton, resigned.

A highly placed official declared that it would be a "good guess" to predict the appointment of Patterson, who at present is federal district judge for the southern New York district.

Patterson, who is 47 years old, has high scholastic rating during his undergraduate days at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and later was graduated from the Harvard Law School.

He was awarded the distinguished service cross for "extraordinary heroism in action" during the World War. He entered the war as a captain and was promoted to major.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—The position of the treasury February 7: Receipts $20,497,123.12; expenditures $20,310,266.57; net balance $1,171,156.514.32; including $2,430,733,855.15 working balance; customs receipts for the month $5,944,365.41. Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) $3,440,192,650.45; expenditures $5,455,193,625.40, including $1,832,026,308.36 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures $2,025,000,974.95; gross debt $39,711,903,589.35, an increase of $1,738,848.54 above the previous day; gold assets $14,729,681.584.74.

Kingston's Building Decline Is More Than in Other Cities

While building construction in 71 other principal Middle Atlantic cities dropped 13.37 per cent during the past year, on the basis of permits issued, the decline in building in this city reached 55.99 per cent.

The figures are contained in a survey of 354 large cities of the country, just made by the Commercial and Financial Chronicle in New York, according to a special dispatch from Manhattan.

Permits in Kingston during 1938, exclusive of engineering and public works construction, totaled $354,300 compared with $885,878 the previous year. The drop in building in the city was decidedly upward in the final months of 1938 and it is undeniable that this reflects enlarged general activity and also contributes to general improvement.

Franco's Troops Capture Border Town, LePerthus; Negrin Crosses Frontier

Needle Removed From Babe

Mrs. Mary Tozzo of New York holds the needle which apparently passed from her body to that of her baby, Dolores, before the child was born. After being located by an X-ray photograph, the needle was extracted from Dolores' back, near the base of her spine, when the baby was 10 months old. Mrs. Tozzo told of sitting on the needles, 2 1/2 inches long and rusty when it finally was removed, more than a year ago.

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—Senator Burke (D-Neb.) proposed today that congress virtually rewrite the Wagner Labor Relations Act and set up a new kind of federal board to administer it.

He completed a series of sweeping amendments designed to protect employers as well as workers in labor disputes, to impose restrictions on various union activities and to limit the powers of the National Labor Relations Board.

Accusing all three members of the present board of being "organized labor partisans," Burke recommended that their terms of office be ended next February 1. In their places he would have the authority in the field against Byrd in 1940. Glass' term expires in 1943.

The statement by Glass put the next move in the controversy up to the president, who must nominate another for the judgeship.

Glass said he did not recall ever having met Judge Buchanan, and declared, "this is no fight for patronage. I do not care a tinker's dam for patronage."

He said the Virginia senators were willing to accept "any capable nominee of the president who is not willing to concede to the governor of Virginia or a bitterly hostile congressman the right to veto the suggestions by the senators of men of the highest character and ability."

Harrison Protests Tax

Harrison, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—The town board of this municipality, in which Governor Herbert H. Lehman at a large estate, last night voted a protest to the government on his proposed $1 per thousand dollars tax on New York real estate. A resolution, protesting the state tax on real estate, will be forwarded to the chief executive at Albany in a few days by town clerk.

Nine Get Guards

Shanghai, Feb. 9 (AP)—Police assigned body guards today to nine foreign newspapermen threatened with death in a letter signed by a "Society" of "True Chinese," alleged terrorists. The nine are considered by Shanghai residents to be pro-Chinese.

The Holy Father's condition was reported to have taken a turn for the worse during the day after Vaticanic sources in the morning had described it as unchanged since yesterday.

Several doctors were understood to be in constant attendance at the pontiff's bedside.

The reported aggravation of his illness caused serious concern because of the pope's weak heart.

Although His Holiness was reported this morning to be determined to take part in week-end ceremonies commemorating the tenth anniversary of the Lateran accord and the 15th anniversary of his coronation, it was believed in the afternoon there was virtually no prospect of his being able to leave his bed.

The 81-year-old pontiff suffered a mild attack of influenza two days ago.

He collapsed with a heart attack November 25, but resumed his regular heavy schedule of audiences on December 3.

Cabinet Resigns

Brussels, Feb. 9 (AP)—The cabinet of Premier Paul Henri Spaak resigned today as the result of a split over Spaak's appointment of Dr. Adriaan Martens, wartime German sympathizer, to the Flemish Academy.

Ralph M. Hutchinson, assistant professor in forest extension at the New York State College of Forestry, Syracuse University, speaking before the Kingston Rotary Club Wednesday noon, congratulated the citizens of Kingston on the fine start they had made in protecting their city water supply through reforestation work.

Professor Hutchinson said he had visited the city forests, in order to greatly curtail his talk on the "Indirect Benefits of Forestry." In order to meet the rotary time limit, the preliminary business program having occupied a considerable portion of the allotted time.

At the business session, which followed some spirited singing led by Gus Modjeska, a committee was authorized to prepare suitable memorial resolutions for the late

Memorial Day.

Major Offensive

Franco Prepares for Drive on Madrid-Valencia Zone; One-Fourth of Spain

Le Perthus, French-Spanish Border, Feb. 9 (AP)—Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's troops, conquerors of Catalonia, reached the French-Spanish border at Le Perthus at 2:05 p. m. (3:05 a. m., E. S. T.) today and planted their flag at the Spanish side of the boundary.

Just two hours earlier the Spanish government premier, Dr. Juan Negrin, had left his house in Le Perthus, a foot from the French border, and entered France.

The insurgent troops occupying the Spanish part of Le Perthus included Falangists and Carlists from Pamplona.

They were commanded by brother of Juan Ignacio Pombo who flew across the Atlantic from Spain to Mexico in 1935.

Loyalists Trucks Seized

Nearly 200 truckloads of government war materials were waiting to cross the frontier when a column of 200 insurgents, with a red and gold flag flying at their head, was sighted marching up the highway from La Junquera.

With yell of warning, government troops riding on the trucks jumped down and raced for the frontier.

Carabineros and other border guards ran with them.

A few scattered shots were fired from the hills at the insurgent column when it first appeared but they were not returned.

Insurgent occupation of the frontier zone took approximately 40 minutes.

The column's commander deployed his troops on each side of the road leading to Le Perthus.

They slowly descended the slope to the border, moving cautiously to the truck caravan. Before passing the vehicles they inspected the trucks carefully to be certain there were no government snipers concealed inside.

The work of pouring concrete is also about completed, and work on the athletic field and running track will be finished and the entire project ready for use by spring.

The stadium which is built of reinforced concrete with brick walls, will have a seating capacity of 2,100. It is 240 feet in length and 45 feet in width.

The athletic field laid out and a quarter mile running track, so that both football and baseball may be played.

The entire area will be fenced with cyclone fencing and the playing area will be enclosed by wooden fence.

Ship Sights Wreckage Believed to Be Freighter

Chatham, Mass., Feb. 9 (AP)—The radio marine station here today reported receipt of a message from the S. S. Aurora asserting she had "sighted wreckage" after search at the spot where the British freighter Maria De Larriaga reported yesterday it was "sinking."

Full text of the Aurora's message:

"Sighted wreckage, hatch covers and oars. Now steering course 130, speed 3 knots."

The vessel gave the position as latitude 42°27' north and longitude 43°45' west. In sending her distress call the freighter yesterday gave her position as 42°15' north, 16°45' west, about 1,200 miles east of New York.

Will Double Reports

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—The weather bureau plans to double its forecast reports to the public after July 1. It now makes two observations daily, in the morning and in the evening. These will be supplemented by observations at noon and midnight. The expansion was announced on the 69th anniversary of the bureau's establishment.

$100,000 Fire at Binghamton

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Fire early today destroyed portions of a burlap bag factory here and firemen estimated the loss at "upward of $100,000."

Fire Chief Arthur J. Dillon said the spectacular blaze which ravaged the Susquehanna waterfront factory operated by Charles and Victor Rosen as a bag factory destroyed that amount in bags alone. The fire was discovered shortly after midnight and was brought under control some three hours later.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Today in New York's legislature. Both senate and assembly meet at 11 a. m. in perfunctory sessions scheduled for introduction of bills.

Growth of Oysters

The shape of oysters is affected by the type of bottom on which they grow. On hard bottom they grow wide in proportion to length; on soft bottom, in which they tend to sink, they become the prized, relatively long-shelled "coons" oysters. Beds producing the latter type of oysters are most likely to be under shoal water, more easily reached by wading, which is the oyster-gathering technique used by the Indians. Hence the high proportion of "coons" oyster shells in the Indian shell mounds represents an unconscious selection of the high quality, shoal-water oysters in ancient times, rather than a deterioration in the quality of the modern mollusks.

Health Committee Will Give Party

Esopus, Feb. 8.—A card party will be held under the auspices of the public health nursing committee of the town of Esopus in the Ulster Park Grange Hall on February 10, at 8:30 o'clock.

The work of this committee is to cooperate with the public health officer and the public health nurses of this township. Committee members assist at the vaccination and toxoid clinics and at the monthly infants' and children's clinics. They also provide transportation for mothers and children to clinics.

Raising funds is not the primary object of the committee but funds are needed to carry on some of the projects. During the last year money has been spent to purchase cod liver oil for needy children, equipment for infants' clinics, also material for obstetrical bundles used in home deliveries. Financial assistance has been given for much needed tonsillectomy cases. When the permanent quarters for the clinic are established more equipment and furnishings will be needed.

This will be the only appeal made to the public this year for funds. Tickets may be purchased from the following members: Mrs. Theodor Ostholt, Mrs. J. Beaver, Jr., Mrs. Markle, Mrs. LeFever.

Deafened Boy Hears Radio

"My boy hears everything on the radio," writes Mrs. Gamphier, Cincinnati. "Before he used to hear, he could not hear the radio."

Frequently, conditions like this and ringing and buzzing head noises or some temporary septic condition may be caused or aggravated by hardened or coagulated wax (cerumen). Try the treatment that many sufferers say has enabled them to hear well again. It is called Ourine, a Vienna specialist's prescription. Used since 1895—over a million packages sold. Safe ingredients as listed in U.S. Pharmacopoeia. Money refund if not satisfied. Costs only a few cents daily. Ask today about Ourine. For sale by Franklin Pharmacy, 739 Broadway, corner St. James street, Kingston, N. Y.—Adv.

BLAME YOUR LIVER IF—

If your liver doesn't secrete 20 to 30 ounces of bile every day into your intestines—constipation with its headaches, mental dullness and that "half-alive" feeling often result. So you see how important it is to keep bile flowing freely! And what finer aid could one desire than Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, used so successfully for years by Dr. F. M. Edwards for treating his patients for constipation and sluggish liver bile.

Olive Tablets are unsurpassed in effectiveness because they stimulate liver bile to help digest fatty foods, they tone up muscular intestinal action at the same time help elimination. Being purely vegetable, Olive Tablets are harmless. Test their supreme goodness TONIGHT! 15¢, 30¢, 60¢. All drugstores.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little PASTEFETT on your false teeth—slippage disappears, giving a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gumminy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. PASTEFETT is safe, non-toxic. Buy PASTEFETT at any drug store—Adv.

'Vegetable' Method of Tanning.

The "vegetable" method of tanning is the oldest and most important process in the leather industry.

This method uses juices from the hemlock, chestnut, oak, spruce, or the hard South American quebracho.

Ninety-six per cent of the leather used for soles is cured with these "vegetable" extracts, according to an authority in the Chicago Tribune.

In the Nineteenth century, however, the tanning power of chromium salts was discovered as a cheaper process. Chrome tanning reduces the thickness of leather and is therefore undesirable in soles.

Uppers are thin slices of the tanned hides and the chrome tanning is highly effective in producing pliable softness. The mineral process is faster, taking about one-quarter of the time of the bark extract process.

Famous Naturalist Born in Haiti

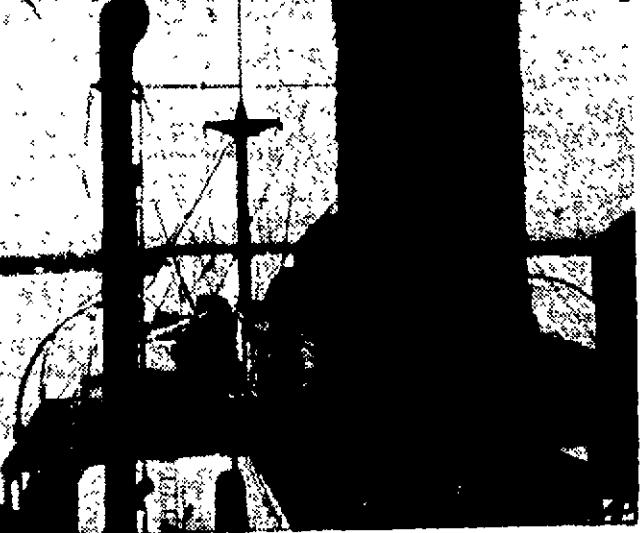

John James Audubon was born at Aux Cayes, Haiti, in 1785. His early years were spent in France, but he came to this country in 1804 to his father's estate, "Mill Grove," near this city. Here he became interested in bird life and in a cave on the banks of the Perkiomen he made the first "banding" experiment on the young of wild American birds.

From 1808 to 1828 he lived in Kentucky, where the greater scope for his studies was possible. He then went to England in search of a publisher for his bird drawings. "Birds of America" was successful immediately. Audubon was made a life member of the American Philosophical Society and of the Academy of Natural Sciences, New York, where some of his original work is preserved. He died in New York, January 27, 1851.

Very Busy Stork

Champaign, Ill. (AP)—The stork set an all-time high in Champaign during 1938 with total of 460 births. The highest previous birth record was 439 in 1925.

SINKING 1200 MILES OFF COAST

Breen Is Given Six-Month Term

Four defendants were brought before the closing session of the county court Wednesday afternoon and Judge Traver disposed of their cases after which he adjourned the term to chambers.

Catherine and Arthur De Pola, East Strand negroes, appeared by Daniel Hoffman and entered pleas of guilty to indecent exposure as a result of an affair last August. They had been indicted on a more serious charge but Judge Traver said he was pronouncing a light sentence on their plea because of circumstances. A nine month jail sentence was imposed and Judge Traver said that the presence of the defendants in this locality was not desired. Before the expiration of their jail terms he said he would have a talk with them and intimated that it might be the desire of the court to have them leave this locality. The couple were arrested by city police May 1 and on his promise to do so he was paroled in custody of Luther Businberg of Gardner. Mr. Kirchner is to make payments to Mrs. Borenus. Mrs. Kirchner agreed to the suspension of payments until May.

District Attorney Murray announced that all of the gambling fines had been paid. Michael Gottfredi who had given three days grace to get his $300 together paid up Wednesday as directed. The payment of the fine by Gottfredi clears up all of the gambling cases on the criminal calendar, some of which have been pending since last spring.

Bradford Field Revives

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 9 (UPI)—Like a surgeon reviving a dying patient with a powerful stimulant, science has restored the 68-year-old Bradford oil field—once virtually dry—to ranking as one of the nation's big ten and producer of the oil in Pennsylvania. A report of the state planning board showed today the giant field, stretching over hundreds of acres of northern Pennsylvania and into

New York state, is emerging from a period during which production "almost ceased" and now is responsible for about 85 per cent of the state's output.

Two Men Bruised When Hit by Cars Here Wednesday

FIREMAN Fred LaTour of the Central Fire Station, and Isaac Herb of Clinton avenue, sustained bruises when struck by automobiles here on Wednesday afternoon, but, according to reports filed with the police department, neither man was seriously injured.

Fireman LaTour was doing school traffic duty on Broadway and O'Reilly street when he was struck in the leg by a car driven by Miss Florence Baatz of 70 Clinton avenue, a teacher in the new Mivon J. Michael School. She said she did not see LaTour until he had struck him.

LaTour was struck in the leg which was bruised, causing him to limp, but he was not knocked down.

Herb was employed on a WPA project on Clinton avenue, near his home, when a car driven by Miss Doris Rehen of 22 Green street struck and bruised him. He was attended by Dr. B. W. Maben. Miss Rehen said that her right front bumper grazed Herb.

Madison First President To Dress in Long Trousers

James Madison was the first President of the United States who habitually dressed in long trousers while he was chief executive. Washington, the elder Adams and Jefferson wore knee breeches during their administrations. Trousers, or long pants, were adopted in France in 1789 by the supporters of the revolution. For that reason the revolutionists were known as "sans culottes" which literally means "without breeches" that is, without breeches worn by the royalists. Many Americans adopted long pants in token of their sympathy with the French revolution. Between 1790 and 1800 trousers gradually came into vogue among the common people in America, but it was not until 10 or 12 years later that they were substituted for breeches on dress occasions. Although the duke of Wellington is said to have worn trousers in England after the Peninsular campaign Beau Brummel is usually credited with having popularized trousers in that country.

Naming the Turkey
There are several different explanations of how the turkey came by his name. Some have suggested that the first turkeys seen in the European market were confused with guinea fowl . . . and were erroneously credited with being a Turkish variety of that bird thus becoming known as turkey fowl, or turkeys. The late Dr George Bird Grinnell a noted naturalist, sponsored another explanation, says the American Wildlife Institute. At the time of their introduction into Spain from America, there was a Jewish monopoly of the poultry markets . . . and he believed that the Jewish name tubki meaning peacock was applied to them.

Beginning of Olympic Games
The modern Olympic games began with an international athletic meet in the stadium at Athens, Greece in 1896. This was made possible largely through the munificence of a wealthy Greek of Alexan- drini George Aberoff and the Greek national committee. Baron Pierre de Coubertin a Frenchman and promoter of international good will was chiefly responsible for organizing the international athletic games in 1895 to re-establish those games to be held every four years in some country chosen by the committee. It is a counterpart of the ancient Greek Olympic festival intended to contribute to the cause of sponsorship and international friendship.

PROCLAMATION
The People of the State of New York by the Grace of God First and in Dependence to the Sheriff of the County of Ulster Greeting.—We command you that you summon to appear at the Court of Common Pleas of the State of New York to be held in Justice of the Supreme Court at the Court House in Kingston, on and after the tenth day of March, on the first Monday of March, 1939, all such persons who shall have been drawn to serve as Grand and Petit Jurors at the said court. And we further command you to bring before the said court all persons who shall be drawn to serve at the said court, just and true, and to do all such acts as may be required of them in their service. And we further command you to make all necessary arrangements for the trial, notifying all persons bound to appear at the said court, by notice in writing, requiring all Justices of the Peace, Coroners, and other officers who may have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court or who have taken any recognizance or examination of any person other than a witness, to make such arrangements as may be necessary. In the said court on the opening thereof on the first day of its sitting and thereafter than there shall be present, within the limits of our Supreme Court at the Court House in Kingston in said County, the eighth day of February, 1939.

CULLEN B. MULVAY
District Attorney

In pursuance to the above pro- clamation, make proclamation that, at the time of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and the District Court, to be held at the Court House in Kingston, and for the County of Ulster, on the first Monday of March next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, all persons who shall be drawn to serve as Grand and Petit Jurors are required to be there present to proceed as may be just, and all persons bound to appear at the said court by recognition of any recognizance given to them, and all officers of the People, Coroners, or other officers who may have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court, or who have taken any recognizance or examination of any person, are required to turn such recognizance, inquisition and examination to the said court, at the opening thereof on the first day of the said month, there present to be there present with all rolls and records, instruments and documents to do those things which are their offices in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster.

CACTUS JACK GARNER AND GUEST*State Police Detain Radio Star at Rhinebeck on Tip

Rhinebeck, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Corporal John H. Curran of the New York State Police said today he preferred a charge of possessing firearms without a permit against a man he identified as Andrew P. Malone, "Pick" of the radio team of "Pick and Pat."

Curran said the man, who signed the name of Malone, was released on bail of $1,000 when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Clarence Traver. A hearing was set for next Tuesday.

The charge was preferred, the corporal asserted, after the man's automobile trip from New York city to Fort Edward, N. Y., was interrupted here last night at the request of William McMahon, an employee on a Fort Edward farm owned by Malone. Curran quoted McMahon as saying Malone was carrying a gun and was coming to Fort Edward "to get him."

Curran said he found a .32 calibre automatic revolver and an old western frontier pistol in the machine, operated by a chauffeur. He quoted the passenger as saying he made application three weeks ago for a permit to carry 100 units of alcohol to be used as motor fuel for the revolver and that the pistol fuel was a "keepake" given him recently by his father.

North Carolina dairy herd improvement associations gained 19 additional cows in 1938.

Atchison, Kansas, claims the first plant established in the 1938.

It's news... everyone is excited... about the fact that you can buy modern gas appliances for NICKELS!

This low cost gas appliance parade is marching right into the homes of people who never thought they could afford to buy these time and labor saving helps which every home- keeper wants.

Now—today—you can have an Automatic Gas Water Heater for ONE NICKEL A DAY! Think what this means. Piping hot water, handy at your hand, to make dishwashing, laundry, cleaning—every household task—easier than ever before.

For TWO NICKELS A DAY
you can have a Heating Gas Range, the gas range which takes the place of your old kitchen range and does both jobs—cooking and kitchen heating — cleaner, better, faster, than ever before. Because this new range has a kitchen heater built into it, it will heat your kitchen, with gas, for a little more than 1 1/2¢ per hour!

For THREE NICKELS A DAY
you can have both appliances and then your kitchen will be ALL-GAS—gas for cooking, gas for kitchen heating, gas for water heating.

See these appliances at plumbers', range dealers', department and furniture stores. Select the ones you want—have them delivered and installed at once . . . there's no down payment! Then pay for them by depositing NICKELS in this small savings device attached to one of the appliances.

MADAME SECRETARY DEFENDS SELF AT HOUSE JUDICIARY HEARING

This was the scene at the House Judiciary Committee hearing in Washington, D. C., as Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins rose to defend herself against impeachment charges. At her side sat Gerard D. Reilly, labor department solicitor, also named in impeachment resolution. Committee members are (L. to R.): Chairman Hatton W. Sumners (D-Tex.); Rep. Zebulon Weaver (D-N.C.); Rep. F. E. Walter (D-Pa.); Rep. Walter Chandler (D-Tenn.); Rep. James M. Barnes (D-Ill.); Rep. C. S. McLaughlin (D-Neb.); Rep. W. B. Gibbs (D-Ga.); Rep. J. H. Tolan (D-Calif.); Rep. W. T. Byrne (D-N.Y.); Rep. Sam C. Massingale (D-Oklahoma).

Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—Short-short of the week is "Stars for Tomorrow," a movie with a history. You may never see it, but I hope you do. Such an effort deserves an audience.

About 17 months ago Patrick Michael Cunningham, 32, extra and bit-player, decided to do something about the careers all extras are supposed to talk and dream about. He and his wife, Persis Annan, a ballet dancer and teacher, gathered their intrepid associates, pooled resources, and became—producers.

For a total cost of $800 (which amounts in Hollywood production circles to about one-quarter inch on the end of a shoestring) they've completed their brief saga of the extra in Hollywood, the moral of which is that stars of today have come from the "ranks," stars of tomorrow will surely do the same.

A BOUT 250 extras, in various capacities, have worked on the project, and many of them have "shares" ranging from two-tenths of one per cent to 2 per cent in the profits, if any. They worked on Sundays, mostly, only day when any such group of extras are likely to be free simultaneously.

They borrowed a friend's North Hollywood home as a set, borrowed "props," and transformed the patio into a continental "beer garden." They made their own costumes, some for as little as 67 cents. Most expensive outfit is worn by John Alman as a John Barrymore-ish character. The costume is that worn by Barrymore in "Reunion in Vienna." They rented it.

The picture was "shot" as funds materialized. There were times when production was "suspended" pending further financing. Sometimes they afforded a professional cameraman; again Cunningham himself would do the camera work. One-time extra Marie Wilson was among the "outside" contributors. Sons of famous movie people—Wallace Reid, Jr., Carlyle Blackwell, Jr., Eric von Stroheim, Jr., Gibson Gowland, Jr., and Bryant Washburn, Jr.—appear in the film, the only "names" in the cast. Gerry Mohr's voice is heard in the narration—and it's a good voice.

OLD FRIENDS, new faces: "The Old Star Witness," which starred the late Chic Sale, is now "Hero for a Day," starring Charlie Grahame.

"The Three Musketeers," which starred Douglas Fairbanks in 1921, Walter Abel in 1935, the Ritz Brothers and Don Ameche in a new musical comedy version, 1939, is being considered by Fairbanks' new producing company as a starer for Fairbanks Jr. to be played straight.

Was "Practically Naked" Butte, Mont. (CP)—The hatless cowboy who stood before the police desk sergeant said "any man without a hat is practically naked." He asked police to try and find the new 10-gallon "skypiece" that had been stolen while he was asleep at a hotel.

The Characters
Peter Malone: Adventurous young journalist.
Petronella: His loyal sister.

Yesterday: Peter is freed and goes to Austria. Aunt Maisie dies, and with her inheritance, Petrel plans to accompany Peter.

Chapter 20

Letter From Russia

ROUDEN regarded Petrel for a minute. He grunted. Looking back over the years he had known the two Mallones, he had to admit that, up to the present, she had certainly helped, rather than hindered Peter. Perhaps it might be as well to give her a little sound advice on his behalf? She was more likely to listen than he was. She seemed to have her pretty head well screwed on this slender, gray-eyed girl, whom he was beginning to like so well. She had common sense, combined with imagination, and emotional control. He had discovered her strength, the day she flew to Germany with such determination.

"Since you seem to be serious, I'll hand you the works, Petrel. You must know some of the tips and golden rules for all journalists." He took out a pencil and an envelope. "I shall write them out for you. See that Peter digests them, will you? There are a good many things."

"Like throwing away blotting paper, and never saying important things over telephones?"

"Yes, and managing to stay in a country, writing politely little, instead of being chucked out, for one unvarnished home truth! I know they sound like secret service melodrama. But you'll do well to keep them in mind. By the way, I checked up on your René Howard, and the Baroness von Cratz. Interesting couple! Your instinct was right, Petrel. Heavens knows how you women do it. Now this is confidential, mind you. You were helped by one of our secret agents!"

"I'm not really surprised."

"The old girl, Fleur von Cratz was a great beauty in her day. A French actress who married into the Prussian aristocracy. She had a lot of friends. But she lost every penny in the time of the inflation. René Howard saw the advantages of her connection, her reputation, and her mental simplicity. He adopted her as his 'aunt,' uses her façade as a screen. Lets the world think he is her playboy. Actually he pays her a good salary on the nail every month."

Petrel nodded. "So that was it! I couldn't help liking him. Poor René! Surely his secret ought to be guarded very carefully?"

"Yes."

"Ought you and I to know?"

"His chief told me. He's a friend of mine. An old friend, Petrel. He let René help you because Peter is my man. But I thought you might like to have the information some time. René plays a pretty lonely hand. You may run into him again. He helped you, you may be able to help him. I'm glad you realized, before I explained to you, that his secret mustn't be allowed to stray."

"I may tell Peter, but probably not. Certainly no one else."

"That's right. When will you leave for Vienna?"

"The day after tomorrow. I wonder how long it will be before we move into the cottage?" she sighed, half laughing. "Where do you think, Mr. Rowdon, we're likely to go next? Peter is terribly keen to get to Russia. He speaks Russian. We have some relatives—"

Martin Rowdon cocked an amused eye at her.

"He believes in asking for trouble, doesn't he? Laic on, perhaps! But not just yet. He is inexperienced. It is a very tricky country; seething with conspiracy."

"Keep Clear."

"IT SOUNDS scary. Often, I wonder what my mother's family must have gone through. I have never seen them. My mother's brother and two cousins live somewhere near Kieff. Their mother died soon after the war. They wrote, about four years ago, saying they were coming to England. We answered. Aunt Maisie offered to have the girl and boy to stay. But they never came."

"If I were you, I'd keep extremely clear of any Russian relations," advised Martin Rowdon. But although he did not wish to do so, he found himself pigeon-holing the information she had given him in his mind. It might be useful, at some future date.

"I think you will find it healthier, and much more beautiful in Czechoslovakia," he smiled at her.

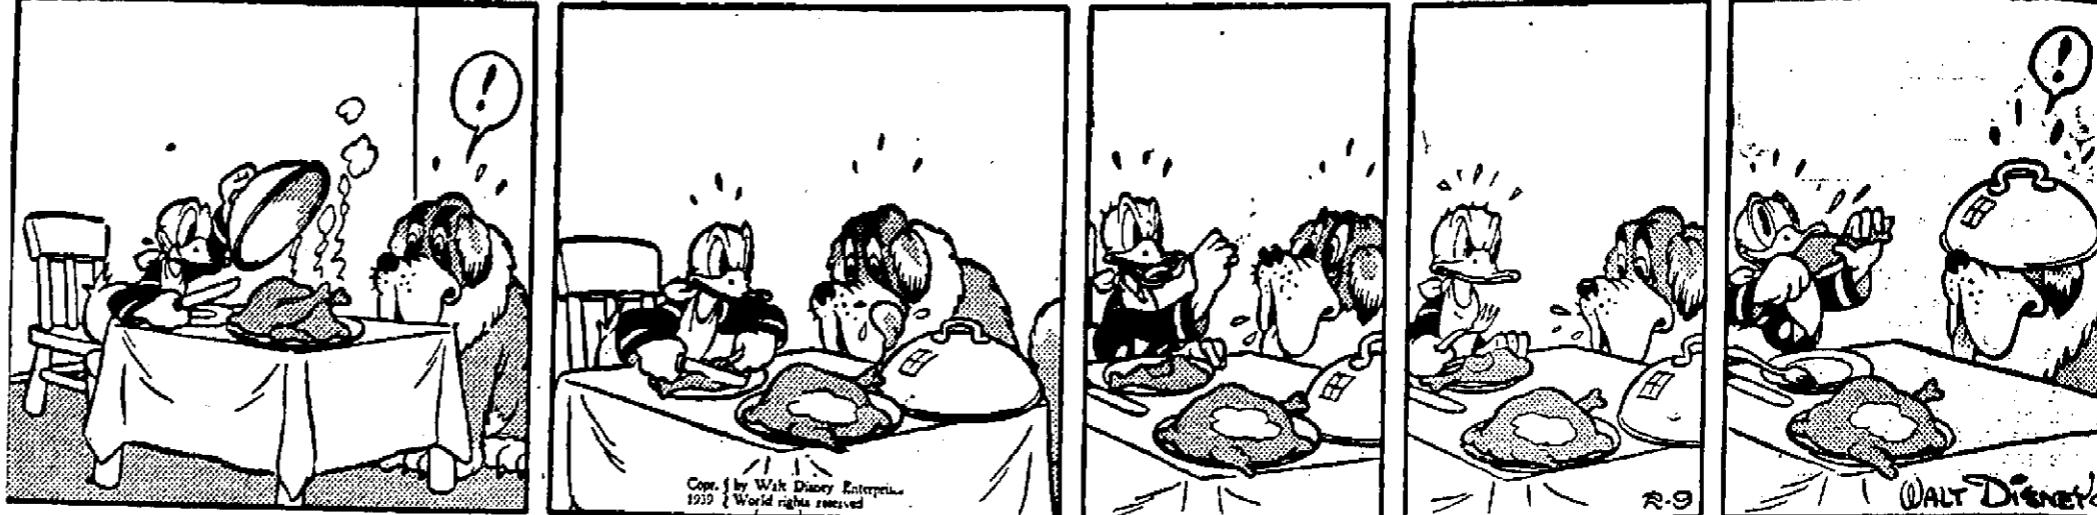

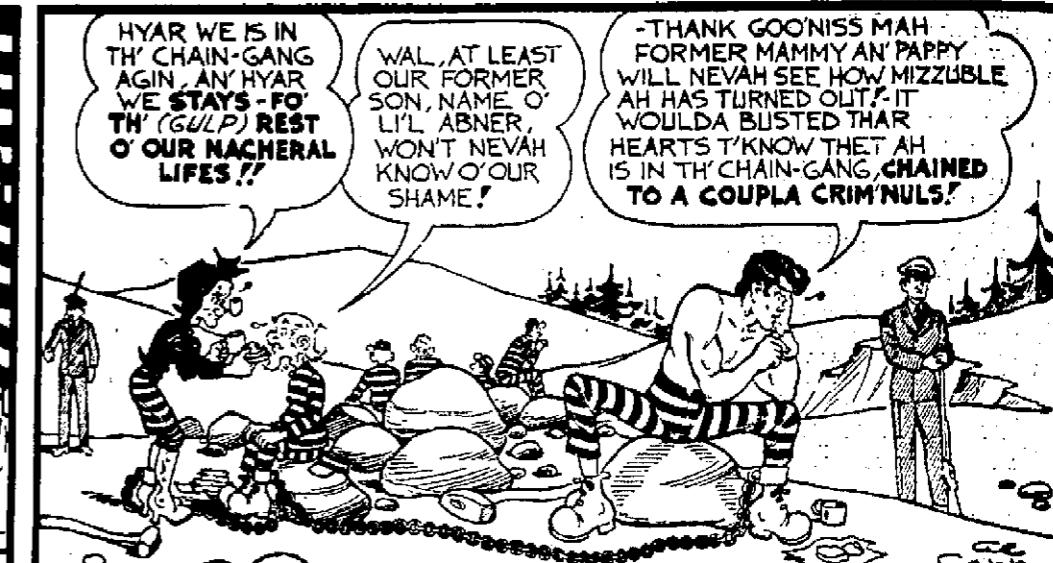

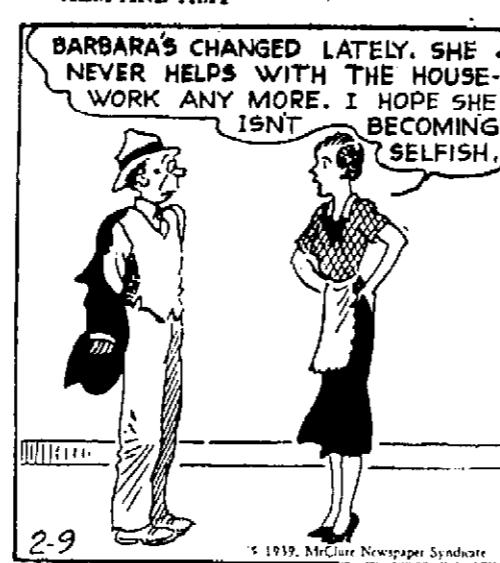

They spent the following Christmas in England, at the cottage. Petronella returned home two weeks ahead of Peter. She left him in Yugoslavia. She wanted to put the cottage in order. Her move to their little home at the gate of the re-occupied "Forest House" had been twice prevented. First, by her joining Peter in Vienna. Next, after the operation in London, which had put his troublesome shoulder right again, when he was sent to Madrid. James and Mrs. Randall had had to come to the rescue, and supervise the final decorations, and the addition of the bathroom. Now she stayed three days with them, while the rest of the furniture was at last moved in. Once more, she spent busy days sewing curtains.

She had plenty to engage her

Man About Manhattan
By George TuckerOFFICE CAT
By Junius

NEW YORK—I know a composer who thinks that every man has at least one song in his heart, and if he knows music can write it. That was O'Henry's idea, too, only in a different way. He always thought that in every man's heart, however inconspicuous or unknown that man, material for an engrossing story could be found, if you could only get to it.

Well, let's see. There is the Manhattan telephone directory, big and bulky, close at hand. I flipped it open, just for fun, and looked down. The name at my fingertip was Philip M. Carter.

Philip Carter, Eh? Would Mr. Carter have a story? Would I find him at 22 East 40th Street? Would he talk? It certainly was worth a try anyway.

Over more she sat in Martin Rowdon's outer office, waiting to see him. But this time, she waited only a few moments. He rose from his desk. He shook both his hands. He sat with the letter smoothed out before him, scowling at it. He raised his rough gray head.

It's a lot of money. Can you afford it? You've been selected as a sufferer from the Oguri traffic in ransoms. They simply arrest citizens having relatives abroad, and, without accusing them of anything, name the amount of ransom. If you don't pay, your cousin will remain in prison. While you're about it, it would probably be cheaper to pay a little more, and get him out of the country. Otherwise, he may be imprisoned again.

But it's simply scurrilous!

Personally, I should ignore it. It's a pity you gave cook the stamps. It might have been re-directed back "address unknown."

But the poor wretch would be kept in prison.

I expect so.

I've never seen him, but he is my cousin. His father was mother's brother. We shall have to pay the trouble is, both his sister and father are living. It may cost us more. I believe my father will contribute as much as he can afford, when he hears about it. He was very fond of mother.

Martin Rowdon sat looking at the letter for a moment. He raised his eyes again. He had made up his mind.

Refilling The Jam Shelf
Tangerine Marmalade
(Something Different and Delicious)

8 tangerines Granulated sugar
Water

Quarter the tangerines, but do not peel them. Cut lemons in half. (Discard seeds.) Cut tangerines and lemons into very thin slices, leaving the rinds on the fruit. Measure and cover by five times as much water. Boil gently for an hour. Let stand over night. Boil 30 more minutes. Measure and add two-thirds of a cup of sugar for each cup of fruit pulp. Add half a teaspoon of salt and boil quickly for 20 minutes—or until the marmalade thickens. Pour into sterilized jars and seal when cool. This is a grand spread with hot toast or biscuits.

Date-Cranberry Butter
(A Winter Treat)

1 cup chopped dates 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
4 cups cranberries 1 cup boiling water
1 cup boiling water 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/2 cup orange juice 1/2 cup light brown sugar

Let simmer for 25 minutes in a covered pan; the dates, cranberries, water, salt, juice and rinds. Mash until soft. Add sugar and boil gently for about 20 minutes or until the butter is thick. Pour into small, sterilized glasses and when cool seal with melted paraffin.

Winter Medley
(Use Fresh Or Canned Fruits)

2 cups diced pineapple 1/2 cup lemon juice
2 cups raisins 1 cup pineapples
2 cups apricots juice
1/2 cup orange juice 1/2 cup granulated sugar

Let simmer for 40 minutes the fruits and juices. Add sugar and boil until medley thickens. (About 20 minutes.) Stir frequently with a long-handled wooden spoon. Pour into small jars and either seal at once with regular cover or wait until cool and cover with melted paraffin.

As an added treat, spread cheese over pie tops during last ten minutes of baking.

Hearings Continue In Plunket Claim Against N. Y. City

Hearings were continued Wednesday before Delaware Water Commission No. 6 in the matter of the claim of Nora M. Plunket for property taken at Lackawack by New York city for the construction of the city's new reservoir at that place. The hearing was held in the New York city law department's new hearing room in the Stuyvesant building on John street.

Yesterday made 14 days that hearings have continued on Mrs. Plunket's claim, which is for the value of 113 acres of land taken in addition to 37 buildings and water power rights.

Thomas M. Plunket, with George F. Kaufman of counsel are appearing for the claimant. New York city is being represented by Henry R. Bright, with John Egan of counsel.

Thibell McDowell and George M. Hoornbeck, appraisers for the claimant, have placed a valuation of over $105,000 on the land and buildings being taken, while Frank Hyatt, appraiser for the city, holds that $45,000 would be about right.

In addition claimant has shown a valuation of $36,000 for the water power rights at the site of the former Charles N. Morse excelsior mill, which is on the property. The city avers that the water rights are of no value whatever.

Further hearings in the matter are scheduled for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week.

Dairy Protection

Albany, N. Y., Feb 9 (AP)—Legislative protection of New York's two-billion dollar dairy industry against the competition of milk by product substitutes was sought today. Two measures were introduced by Republican Senator Fred A. Young, Louisville, one of which would require makers and dispensers of imitation butter to be licensed. Manufacturers would pay a $1,000 fee, wholesalers, $500; retailers, $100; hotels and restaurants, $50, and boarding houses, $10.

Frank Hoyt Dies

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Word reached here last night of the death yesterday in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., of Frank H. Hoyt, 70, former purchasing agent for the Standard Oil Company of New York and one-time national senior golf champion. At the age of 16 he went to work for the original Standard Oil Company here and remained with the firm until his retirement in 1928.

Dr. Stern Improves

Dr. Samuel Stern, the lower Broadway optometrist, who has been critically ill at the Kingston Hospital, has so far recovered that it is expected he will be able to return to his home on Presidents Place Friday.

Party Perfect

February is a perfect time for perfect parties. There's Lincoln's Birthday—a fine time to entertain the men and boys. Deep down within his heart, many a man and boy holds Abraham Lincoln as his idol. This makes a Lincoln party a perfect way to entertain the young boy's Sunday School class or Boy Scout or Forest Ranger Group. And a "quick notice" party for Saturday afternoon or Monday evening will bring the youngsters running, for they seldom know the meaning of "conflicting dates" when there's to be a party.

Short notice parties usually throw homemakers in a panic. But they need not. For refreshments serve a Lincoln log (jelly roll) with ice cream or fruit-tapioca, and milk or hot chocolate. If you've time to make the jelly roll at home, do use this recipe.

Place the roll on a large platter which has been covered with a paper doily. Place a miniature Lincoln at one end with a gilt-paper axe in his hand. One slice might be partially cut and the axe inserted in the opening. At the other end of the platter, arrange tiny flags. Provide each boy with a small flag for his coat lapel, and use red, white and blue paper napkins and table cloth. Decorated paper dishes will save dish washing. The flags might be distributed by inserting the stem of each in a marshmallow and passing the marshmallow platter to the boys who take a flag and place the marshmallow in their hot chocolate.

OLD-FASHIONED JELLY ROLL

$\frac{3}{4}$  cup sifted cake flour,  $\frac{3}{4}$  teaspoon double-action baking powder,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon salt, 4 eggs,  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup sifted sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1 cup jelly.

Sift flour once and measure. Combine baking powder, salt and eggs in bowl. Place over smaller bowl of hot water and beat with rotary egg beater, adding sugar gradually until mixture becomes thick and light colored. Remove bowl from hot water. Fold in flour and vanilla. Turn into 15" x 10" pan which has been greased and lined with paper to within  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch of edge, and again greased. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 13 minutes.

Quickly cut off crisp edges of cake. Turn from pan at once on cloth covered with powdered sugar. Remove paper, spread with jelly and roll. Wrap in cloth and cool on rack.

Hearts for the Ladies

While everyone likes to enter into the spirit of a Valentine party, it's the ladies who usually find themselves

Hints

Don't make the mistake of giving the small puppy a bath even if it does look dirty. Brush him carefully with a dry brush, combing him from his coat and then brushing it out is an effective dry cleaning method, or white dogs may be dry cleaned with a special white chalk. Growing puppies from a litter of any size should be fed a can of dog food four times a day. Rotate flavors of canned dog food so that the dog will continually have a new taste treat.

OLD-FASHIONED JELLY

CHERRY JELATINE IN A HEART-SHAPED MOLD

the planners for these festivities—and they love doing it. For isn't Valentine's Day a day for lovers, old and young?

Guests or not, the homemaker can be hostess at the family table on this sentimental holiday. A simple, crystal clear gelatin mold forms the table centerpiece and later the basis for the dessert. If you do not have a large heart-shaped mold, small similarly shaped individual molds may be purchased for a very few cents and used for individual salads throughout the year. For the Valentine centerpiece they might be arranged in pattern formation on a paper doily. Cooky arrows and cupids made from a stiff butter icing convert the platter into a frivolous Valentine. Even baby can have plain gelatin for dessert and thus partake of the Valentine feast.

While plain gelatin makes a fine dessert, some homemakers may prefer a more substantial one. This may be accomplished by passing ordinary salad or dessert plates, each containing a variety of sliced canned fruits—pineapple, peaches, apricots, and pears, topped with shredded Brazil nuts. Then the gelatin is passed and the serving placed on top of the fruits. Whipped cream served separately makes this a royal dish! And jelly roll and gelatin make handsome pals ... toothsome ones, as well.

FRUIT NECTAR TAPIOCA

1 can fruit nectar,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup granulated sugar,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1 teaspoon butter, 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Combine nectar, sugar, salt and tapioca in top of double boiler and stir to blend. Cook over water 20 to 25 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring occasionally. Remove from fire, add butter and lemon juice and stir to blend. Pour into molds and chill. Serve plain or with cream. Serves 6.

BAKED EGGS IN TOASTED BISCUITS

8 round whole wheat biscuits, 4 tablespoons butter, 8 eggs,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cups tomato sauce, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, salt and pepper.

Hollow out each biscuit slightly to make a depression large enough to hold a raw egg. Sprinkle each biscuit with melted butter and toast in a hot oven (400°F.) for 5 minutes. Break a raw egg into each case, top with melted butter, add seasonings and bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 20 minutes. Serve hot with tomato sauce and a little grated cheese.

CORN A LA CREME

2 slices bacon, 2 cups canned whole kernel corn,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup evaporated milk. Dice bacon, fry until crisp and drain off fat. Add corn, milk and season. Mix well, heat over hot water. Serves 4.

Davis' Sister on Witness Stand

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Rose Wendorff, sister of J. Richard ("Dixie") Davis, the glib litigator who aided Dutch Schultz's $20,000,000-a-year political racket to evade the law, testified today that she took sums of money four of five times to Tammany District Leader James J. Hines for her brother.

Hines is on trial a second time on lottery conspiracy charges in connection with the Schultz gambling combine.

Mrs. Wendorff testified she delivered "$5,000—sometimes more" to the political leader several times during 1933 and 1934, when Schultz's numbers racket flourished.

During direct examination, by District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, Mrs. Wendorff identified a check for $5,000, dated June 22, 1934, endorsed with the signature of Schultz.

Mr. and Mrs. Verko耶 and Joe Cassle were supper guests of Misses Linda and Rose Ellison Sunday evening.

James and John Mulqueen and Sarsfield Sheridan called on relatives here Saturday.

Edwin Jayne, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Jayne, Mohonk Lake, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Upright and daughter, Joyce, were in Kingston Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Buttles and daughter, Marlene, of Yorktown Heights were guests of Mr. Buttles' mother, Mrs. Eliza Buttles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conklin of Wallkill were callers in town Sunday.

Mrs. L. Kline returned home on Sunday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Vande Mark of Cornwall for the past two weeks.

Frank Majestic, who is employed at Arnock's, spent the weekend with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Donahue and daughter, Elizabeth, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tazzio, of Ohioville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellison and son of Montgomery visited Mr. Ellison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ellison, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Denton left on Thursday for a motor trip to Florida.

The village meat market which has been under new management for the past few weeks is now closed.

The monthly fire meeting will be held on Monday evening.

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church will serve a roast beef dinner in the church hall on Tuesday evening, February 21. Supper will be from 6 o'clock until all are served.

Possible Telephone Strike

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Possibility of a strike of 2,500 telephone employees was raised today in a complaint against the New York Telephone Company filed with the National Labor Relations board. The complaint was presented before Mrs. Elsie H. Horrick, NLBRC regional director, by Henry Mayer, attorney for the United Telephone organization, an independent union.

Testimonial Dinner

A testimonial beefsteak dinner was given at the Stuyvesant Hotel Wednesday night by members of the John Edwards staff of the Kingston office of the Prudential Insurance Co. The dinner was in honor of Hirschel Mayes, who was recently awarded a gold pocket for 20 years of service as an agent of the Prudential.

KRIPPLEBUSH

Kripplebush, Feb. 9—A Valentine party will be held Wednesday evening, February 15, at the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall. A short blackface act, "The Barber Shop," will be presented at 7:30 o'clock by eight young men of the Sunday school. An evening of games will follow. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. DuBois and family spent Sunday with Mrs. L. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Strateman spent the weekend at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lyons spent Tuesday in Kingston.

Court of Honor Friday

The Boy Scout court of honor for the Kingston district will be held at the court house Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Two hundred mules and horses brought more than $16,000 at the first big mule and horse auction in Kansas this year. Farmers called it a "pretty good price."

Theatre Group Meets Feb. 16

There will be a meeting of the Ulster County Theatre Association Thursday evening, February 16, in the club rooms at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock.

In addition to the regular business meeting directors of workshop production will cast for a series of one-act plays to go into rehearsal. All members and others interested in these plays are asked to try out for parts.

Max Lippe Held

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—A 55-year-old bald bondsman who, a prosecutor asserted, has been "running the courts" in Brooklyn for 30 years, remained in jail today under $50,000 bail bond while his counsel sought new ways to free him. The veteran bondsman, Max Lippe, is being held as a material witness in an inquiry authorized by Gov. Lehman into the administration of justice in Brooklyn. He has been in jail 50 days.

Shrine Priest Dies

The Rev. Peter F. Cusick, S. J., known to many local people who have visited the shrine of Our Lady of the Assumption, died Tuesday in St. Francis Hospital, New York. He was former president of Canisius College, Buffalo and former director of the shrine of North American Martyrs at Ausableville and planned the circular "coliseum" there. A Mass was said for him at the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola in New York and he was to be buried this afternoon in St. Andrew's cemetery.

Securities Were Higher Wednesday

Stocks opened Wednesday with business news generally satisfactory and the foreign situation a bit better, the close of the market showing all classes of securities up for the day. Dow-Jones Industrials were advanced 1.32 point, to 145.43; rails gained 0.42 point, to 30.36 and utility averages advanced 0.37 point, to 25.29. The volume of 610,000 shares was low but ahead of Tuesday's total. Although bonds generally were in regular lower utility bonds closed at a record high in the Dow-Jones index.

Commodities were higher. Wheat was up as much as 5¢ of a cent, and sugar, hides and silk showed gains.

Retail sales of automobiles for January were ahead of last year by 37 per cent and were but 19 per cent under the December peak. General Motors reported factory sales for the month highest for any January except 1936. Total was 152,746 units, 62 per cent above January 1938. Buick's January sales broke all records.

Electric output continued to show gain over a year ago. For the week ending February 4 the gain was 3.8 per cent over the like week in 1938.

Montgomery Ward reported January sales totaling $24,788,545, highest for the month in the company's history and ahead of last year by 13.4 per cent.

Further evidence that the new congress is not inclined to accept all that is handed it in the public ownership of power field was given yesterday when the house, by a vote of 159 to 122, refused appropriations for continued TVA construction on the $95,000,000 Gillettville dam, for starting of construction on the $35,000,000 Waits Bar dam to complete surveys for construction of a $25,000,000 dam at Coulter shoals. A coalition of Republicans and Democrats, the latter mostly from the coal producing districts, turned the trick. Authorization for the TVA to enter into contractual obligations up to $4,000,000 had also been eliminated from the $1,900,000,000 appropriation bill for independent agencies. Should the senate sustain the house in its action it will have far-reaching effect on the whole TVA program.

Niles-Bement-Pond reported 1938 earnings of $844,000, or $1.90 a share, vs. $1,290,884 or $7.46 a share in 1937. January orders showed a sharp upturn.

Marshall Field had net income in 1938 of $5,492,238, or $1.04 a share, vs. net of $1,645,451 before, in 1937. Gotham Silk Hobby showed 1938 net of $227,787 and Industrial Rayon $184,110.

Among companies reporting net loss for 1938 are: American Woolen Co., $4,911,502 and General Railway Signal, $13,552.

Waco Aircraft has received an order from Brazil for 15 planes, totaling $225,000.

Great Northern Paper Co. ordered a 50-cent dividend on common. Paid a quarterly of 25 cents and an extra of 12 cents at this time last year.

J. G. Brill had net loss of $133,565 in 1938 compared with net income of $341,593, or $4.55 on common in the preceding year.

Drug Cache Is Betrayed

By Beams of Flashlight
HOUSTON, TEXAS.—Federal officers for several nights watched the beam of a flashlight as a narcotic suspect walked across a field from several angles, then drew mathematical lines across the field along the path followed by the light. Where the lines crossed, they produced with an iron rod and found 4,000 grains of narcotics cached in a thermos jug. They waited and picked up the man with the flashlight.

Famous Thorn Bush

According to tradition the famous thorn at Glastonbury cathedral was brought and planted there by Joseph of Arimathea, and was part of the crown of thorns which was pressed upon the brow of Christ. According to tradition it blooms at Christmas-time and the possession of a piece is said to insure good fortune through the year. There is also a slip which has grown from a gift from Glastonbury, at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, now in Washington, D. C.

Berries of the tangerine tree, a rare tropical plant, may be used in the same way as lipstick.

No 'Leak' in My Office, Declares Governor Lehman

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Governor Lehman termed today "quite beyond my understanding" Manhattan District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey's accusation "someone in Albany" had sought to discredit state witnesses in the James J. Hines trial.

In a letter to Dewey, his Republican opponent in the November election, Lehman characterized as "inexcusable arrogance and impudence" the implication that a "leak" concerning statements about the prosecutor's witnesses was permitted in Albany.

"There has been no 'leak' in my office in this or any other matter," the governor asserted.

Dewey's accusation that false statements designed to make two witnesses, Richard (Dixie) Davis, counsel for the late Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Fleckenheimer, and the late George Weinberg appear as liars followed publication of affidavits by two inmates of the Atlanta, Ga., federal prison.

DRY BROOK

Dry Brook, Feb. 9—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Haynes, Mrs. Allen Crumling and Mrs. H. C. Todd were Kingston callers Friday.

In spite of another three-inch snowfall several local Dairy League members and their families attended the annual banquet given by the association at the M. E. Church parlors on Tuesday, February 7. The turkey dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid Society after which two talks were given by Directors Leslie Stahl of Margaretville and Frank Guernsey of Oneonta followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Mary Rosa spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Percy White, in Shandaken. The covered dish luncheon which was held at the home of Mrs. Claude Haynes on Thursday for the benefit of the M. E. Church fair society was well attended and over $8 was realized from dinner fees. The next luncheon will be at the home of Mrs. Cecil Graham on Friday.

Mr. Tweedie, coal, feed and lumber dealer of Andes was a business caller in this place on Saturday. Several members of the Dairy Farmers' Union held a banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Banker at Mapledale on Saturday, February 4. At 1 o'clock the ladies served a turkey dinner. After a round table discussion it seemed to be growing sentiment among the farmers in general in favor of the union. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egner, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eignor, Mr. and Mrs. John Huckleberry Brook, Mr. and Mrs. August Filipeau and sons, Albert, Oscar and Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Banker and sons, Arnold and Louis, Mrs. Sabre Todd and son, Lyman and lady friend, Mr. and Mrs. Ney Todd and son, Bill, and daughters, Betty and Ann, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crandall and daughters, Jeanette and Annette. After an enjoyable day the various families departed looking forward to another gathering in the near future. Many thanks are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Banker for opening the home for the occasion.

Modern Canning

Modern canning developed from the need for preserved foods to supply armies in the field. During the Napoleonic wars so many soldiers died from deficiency diets or slow starvation that the French government offered a reward of 12,000 francs to anyone who could develop an effective method of preserving food. The first canned food was put up in sealed glass jars which were heated in boiling water after they were sealed.

The value of plastics produced in this country jumped from $1,500,000 in 1921 to $30,000,000 in 1938.

George W. Goudy Dies at Highland

George W. Goudy, 68, who for approximately 40 years has been a resident of Highland, died at his home on the New Paltz turnpike Tuesday evening after a long illness. Mr. Goudy was very active in Masonic circles and was past district deputy of the Greene-Ulster district. He was a director of the Philadelphia Quartz Company, manufacturing chemists of that city, and an officer of the corporation. Directors of the corporation will act as bearers. Mr. Goudy became connected with the company about 40 years ago, his father having previously been connected with the concern.

Born in Dairylane, Ulster county, he attended school in Poughkeepsie and was graduated from West Town Boarding School at West Town, Pa. He was a member of the Friends' Meeting of Poughkeepsie and services will be conducted at the late home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be in charge of the Rev. Rupert H. Stanley, pastor of the Friends' Meeting. Masonic services will be held at the late home. Funeral will be in Poughkeepsie Rural cemetery.

Fraternally Mr. Goudy was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of Adonia Lodge of Highland and Highland Chapter, R. A. M., of Newburgh; Hudson River Commandery, Knights Templar of Newburgh, and Cypress Temple of Albany. Always interested in Masonic activities he took a great interest in the Highland Lodge and he will be missed not only in Masonic circles but throughout the community of Highland where he took an active interest in the village activities and affairs.

Surviving are his wife, Miss Mildred Ritz Goudy; two sisters, Arilla E. Goudy of Poughkeepsie and Mrs. Charles S. Woodruff of Philadelphia.

Local Death Record

Word was received here Wednesday of the death, after a short illness from pneumonia, at her home in Springfield, Mass., of Helen Hull O'Connor, wife of John O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor was for eight years connected with the Whelan drug store in Kingston, leaving last December for Springfield, where he had taken another position. Mrs. O'Connor's home was in Springfield at the time of her marriage to Mr. O'Connor last summer.

Mrs. Alice Evans of John street, Schenectady, who had been critically ill with pneumonia and heart complications for number of days, died in the Kingston Hospital on Tuesday night. She was in her 35th year. Mrs. Evans is survived by her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Kirby; five sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Riley, Mrs. Patrick Sheridan, Mrs. John Clivaden, Mrs. Joseph Castro, and Miss Blanche Kirby; and three brothers, George Kirby, William Kirby and Donald Kirby, all of New York. The funeral services will be held in St. Mary's Church, Saugerties, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Jefferson cemetery, Catskill.

Charles Van Etten, 82, of Lake Katrine, died Wednesday for Cleveland, Ohio, where Dr. Crowley will inspect a large hospital specializing in the treatment and care of babies. He will resume his practice Monday.

Mrs. DeWitt Barley of Accord, who has been at the Orthmann Sanitarium for four weeks for treatment, has made good recovery and is now at the home of her son, J. Haviland Barley, 161 North Fairview avenue, for a couple of weeks.

K. of C. Ball Plans Novel Decorations

The large crowd expected to attend the 20th annual Knights of Columbus ball on Friday evening, February 17 will see a complete transformation of the interior of the municipal auditorium, for the decorations committee under the direction of P. G. K. Florian P. Wingert has promised something new and novel in the way of decorations.

Mr. Wingert has had a great deal of experience in this work, for he has been in charge of decorations for many K. of C. charity balls. The focal point will be the stage where a gigantic emblem will be displayed. Smaller emblems will be placed around the auditorium on a background of purple and gold, the official colors of the Knights of Columbus. Chairman Wingert and his committee have other novel ideas which should change the appearance of the interior of the huge auditorium.

Officers' Club Meets

The Officers' Club of Kingston Chapter, No. 155, Order of the Eastern Star was entertained last evening at the home of Miss Anna Neels on East Chester street, with Miss Edna Renn, co-hostess. "I was pleasantly surprised at the convenience and comfort of B-ettes"

Internal Sanitary Protection . . . No Odor, No Belts, Pads or Pins

Local women who recently tried B-ettes at our expense, are now delighted to buy this modern sanitary protection, as sales by retailers prove. These women have found new comfort, new convenience, new peace of mind at a trying time—complete protection without pins, pads or belts—no bulges, no chafing—most important, no odor problem, because internal absorption prevents odor. Try B-ettes and you'll never want to go back to "old ways". 25¢ for 12 (a month's supply)—10¢ for trial package of 4 at drug or dept. stores. Say "B-ettes".

Legion to Hear Lincoln Speech

A highlight of the American Legion's celebration of Lincoln's Birthday this year, according to Commander Joseph E. Sills, of the Kingston Post No. 150, will be a half-hour broadcast over Columbia's nation-wide network featuring Raymond Massey, star of Robert E. Sherwood's play, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," which is recognized as the outstanding dramatic hit of the current Broadway season in New York city.

During the broadcast, between 1:30 and 2 p.m. (CST) Sunday, February 12, Massey will deliver Lincoln's touching farewell to his Springfield neighbors which constitutes the climax and final scene of the play.

Part of the half-hour broadcast will come from the tomb of Abraham Lincoln at Springfield, Ill.

Falcaro Rolls 220 Average In Seven Matches Wednesday Against Five Local Bowlers

Ending his two-day visit at Central Recreation Alley, Wednesday, Joe Falcaro, world's champion match bowler, posted an average of 220 for seven games with local keglers.

With a crowd present that surpassed that of Tuesday night, Falcaro put on his pleasing exhibition, doing his turn like a real trouper despite the handicap of feeling ill. He was in exceptional form for his game with Johnny Ferraro, proprietor of the alleys. Joe won 656-502.

Falcaro's first opponent was Mrs. Adelaide Gilbert, who posted a 179 in the women's matches before the special show. Her excitement overcame a good start and 166 was her score against the champion. Next were Pete Koresman, Ad Jones and Charles Tiano, all of whom bowed to the expert as shown by the following scores:

Falcaro	Opponents
Falcaro 233	Mrs. A. Gilbert 145

Falcaro 224	Ferraro 138
Total 688	502
Falcaro's total 1538—ave. 220.

The battle began in red hot fashion and at the end of the first period the Colonials were in front by one point, 13-12. In the second, the close fighting continued with Esposito, Kappens and Krueger giving the Vissies a lead 18-18 near the termination of the game. Frankel's deuce and Reiser's free one knotted the standing at 23 all, and then Esposito sank one from the floor to push Brooklyn into the van. 25-23 at the whistle.

In the third period Berenson put on his stellar exhibition and helped the Colonials to clinch their hold on the league lead. He and Reiser started the canto by tying the tally with fouls. Krueger pumped in a two-pointer, but Sammy Kaplan evened the score with his pair of free ones.

A pair of fields by Kramer and Frankel boosted Kingston ahead 31-27. Berenson worked his way through the Brooklyn defense for two sinkers and then contributed two fouls to lead the swing parade for the closing frame and save the Colonials.

Must Show Worth

Detroit, Feb. 9 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, one of the most liberal major league baseball clubs when it comes to dishing out wages, have adopted a "play or else . . ." policy in regard to this year's rewards for their hired hands.

It's strictly an experiment, revealed when the 1939 contracts were sent out, but the idea is that faded contracts may serve to restore the absent "color" to the team's performances.

So far no holdout has announced himself, but if one does, General Manager Jack Zeller has the answer all ready:

"If he wants more money, he can go out and show that he's entitled to more."

"Some of the boys," Zeller observed, "have been so well taken care of in the past that they lost the urge to hustle."

This season's salaries, while lower, were all "extremely fair."

McSpaden Shoots 59 at San Antonio

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 9 (AP)—Natives who had stacked home-grown Texas talent against the field in the $5,000 Texas Open, pulled their punches a trifle today in favor of the sensational goings-on of Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Boston.

The stopped veteran yesterday blistered Brackenridge Park's wooden par 36-35-71 course in a mere 59 strokes—twelve under par in a warm-up round. He miniced-in ten birdies, one eagle and seven pars to crush the course record by five strokes and break all existing P. G. A. records for a par 71 course.

Prior to McSpaden's outburst, the veteran Abe Espinoza of Chicago had stirred the railbirds with a 63, one under the old course record. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the nonchalant Arkansas Traveler, checked in with a 65 and Byron Nelson of Reading, Pa., and Henry Ransom of Bryan, Texas, scored 67's.

Tantalum is rarer than gold in the earth's crust. It was discovered in 1803, but was not used for a century. In 1903 to 1911 it was used for incandescent bulb filaments, but was later displaced by tungsten.

It is remarkably resistant to acid corrosion. The world's supply of tantalum ore has come almost exclusively from Australia. Small quantities have been made from Africa and South America.

It's strictly an experiment, revealed when the 1939 contracts were sent out, but the idea is that faded contracts may serve to restore the absent "color" to the team's performances.

So far no holdout has announced himself, but if one does, General Manager Jack Zeller has the answer all ready:

Kurt Sander, Local Ward Man, Receives Promotion

Kurt Sander, head of the clothing and men's furnishings department of the local Montgomery Ward store has been promoted to department manager in the Ward store at Jamaica, L. I.

Manager A. J. Cordon of the local store said that Sander gained this appointment because of his merchandising and selling ability. Last year he won the company's grand prize of $125 for best performance in his departments.

Mr. Sander has been replaced by Henry Votec, a Kingston man, formerly for eight years with the J. C. Penney, Co. Mr. Votec already has assumed his new duties.

CRANBERRY HAM PLATTER GARNISHED WITH FRUIT

Campaigning for Cupid

Today we homemakers are "campaigning for cupid." We're no committee to fall back on, no publicity agent to blame for the failure of our undertaking, and our campaign manager is none other than ourselves. We alone must furnish the headwork, the handwork and artwork that will make Cupid's Day one long remembered. But... and an important "but" it is, too... our own grocer will be the best helper we ever had, if we just give him a chance to lend a helping hand.

Let us plan our menu roughly—leaving room for changes as our imagination and ingenuity plunge on ahead. We'll build our meal about baked ham because it's always dependable as to quality; it requires little attention while cooking (if we want to take the easy way out, we can use canned baked ham); and it is economical to serve. For Cupid's Day we'll need to dress it up with a special sauce or garnish it. The grocer will tell us, if we ask him, the size ham we shall need, the type to purchase and the time required for cooking. Some hams are pre-cooked, you know!

We might eliminate the first course by garnishing the platter with grilled pine-apple slices, cranberry molds and stuffed baked apples; and we can serve the apples as a salad. Let the grocer select the apples for baking—he will know the kind that bakes quickly, yet remains firm.

For dessert let's select gelatine molded in heart shapes and jelly roll. Coffee for beverage, with tea for those preferring it. With the menu outline planned, let's think of recipes:

CRANBERRY HAM

Bake ham of desired size, basting frequently with a sauce made by combining 3 cups cranberry juice and 1 cup brown sugar. Score and stud with cloves in the usual manner.

SALMON COMBINATION GRILL

1 pound canned salmon, 2 large bananas, 8 grapefruit sections and mashed potatoes.

Drain salmon; with sharp, heated knife, slice into 4 circles; place each on mashed potato mounds on baking sheet. Place mashed potato peeks on top and brush with melted butter. Cut bananas in half lengthwise, roll in seasoned flour, then in melted butter. Sprinkle grapefruit sections with salt and sugar. Arrange about salmon on baking sheet and place in hot oven (475°F.) or under broiler flame until brown. Serves 4.

same number as the lodge rooms on the third floor of the bank building. The approximate size of the lodge room would be 31 by 64 after alteration and this would be about seven feet shorter than the rooms now used by No. 10. The width of the lodge room is approximately the same slightly wider. The room would be slightly smaller than the rooms now occupied by Rondout Lodge. Seating capacity of the altered room would be about 180.

Under the plan now being proposed the first floor would be maintained as club rooms for members of the two lodges and the upper or third floor could be used for storage of paraphernalia and locker rooms. In the basement would be kitchens and a dining hall.

Kentucky's highest court, the court of appeals, hands down more than 600 opinions annually.

London (CP)—British shipowners engaged in the continental trade complain that merchant fleets of Scandinavian countries contain old vessels built of iron which never seem to wear out. With moderated engines and cargo space they compete advantageously with other boats. A list of vessels under 3,000 tons built before 1890 shows that 84 are still on the register. One of them is 74 years old.
